

LEARN TO WRITE A NOVEL OR TRUE LIFE STORY

Best-selling writers teach you live, in-person!

Rebeca Seitz is the award-winning author of The Sisters, Ink series, Prints Charming, multiple biographies, and the Naples-based First Glance. She is also a screenwriter and producer, currently in development on the Naples-based made-for-TV movie “Shifting Tides.” She serves as CEO and President of the non-profit entertainment group SON Studios. Seitz makes her home with her husband, two children, a rescued basset hound named Cole Porter and the guinea pig sisterly duo Ruby and Charlotte in Naples.

Eva Marie Everson is the best-selling, Christy Award-winning author of such hits as The Road to Testament, Five Brides, and The Potluck Club series. She serves as President of Word

Weavers International and the Florida Christian Writers Conference and works with SON Studios writers as a mentor and editor. She is also Acquisitions Editor for Firefly Southern Fiction. She makes her home outside Orlando with her husband and is blessed to have all three of her children and their children nearby.

Travis Freeman’s life story inspired the major motion picture, 23Blast (Mark Hapka, Bram Hoover) and his journey is captured in the biography LIGHTS OUT: Living in a Sightless World, which he wrote with Rebeca Seitz. At the age of 12, Travis Freeman lost his eye sight due to severe illness. In spite of Travis’ blindness, he played high school football, served as a football equipment manager at the University of Kentucky, and received a Master of Divinity and Doctorate of Philosophy from The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Travis currently serves as adjunct professor at University of the Cumberlands and as President of The Freeman Foundation, which is dedicated to furthering the truth that disability does not equal inability.
